Physical Description:

Parks carries himself with a 'no-nonsense' attitude, and easily falls back into military posturing when he's not paying attention. When not working, he usually dresses in 'comfortable' clothes... a flight suit and a jacket.

Word on the Street:

>> Parks is an old school rigger. From what I can tell he's all driver, no hacker.

>> B.B.

>> Yeah, but he excels at piloting, flight support, and remote drone support in urban military conflicts. Word is that he's military trained on Mil-Spec rotorcraft and fixed wing aircraft.

>> Stumpy

>> Rumor says that he's quite the loose cannon, but all the references check. He's got several outstanding warrants... but then again, who in the shadows doesn't?

>> White Eagle

>> What's with the sword? Is it 'cause he's Japanese?

>> Sureshot

>> Racist.

>> White Eagle

Personal Commentary:

Eh, what I do ain't that tough. Flying a plane is no different from riding a bicycle... It's just a lot harder to put baseball cards in the spokes.

Roleplaying Notes:

Parks is a hard case, pure and simple He's former military, but when he finally got fed up he walked. He is certainly capable of loyalty to people he respects, but he insists that respect is a two way street. One of his mottos would certainly be 'Do unto others...' Parks has a habit of slipping back into his military habits when he's not paying attention... standing 'at rest', sitting up ramrod straight, using perfect 'military' style etiquette over the radio, etc... These habits are extremely noticeable when he's nervous, or under stress.
